

Primary health care is covered by a fee, and provided at the Health Center on campus. They can provide you with referrals should you need special care for catastrophic or other serious illnesses. You can check out the services offered at the Health Center by following this link:

The Counseling Center is also available to Baruch students and their services are free.

BELOW ARE LOW-COST ALTERNATIVES FOR STUDENTS OPTING NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN GHI OR COBRA PLANS.

HEALTH PLUS

New York State's insurance program for low-income individuals and families

www.healthplus-ny.org

RYAN CENTER

Upper West Side: 212-316-8367

110 West 97th Street (Mon. & Thurs. 8:30-7; Tues., Wed. & Fri. 8:30-4:30; Sat. 9:30-1:00)

East Village: 212-477-8500

279 E 3rd St. b/t Ave. C & D (Mon. & Thurs. 8:30-7; Tues., Wed. & Fri. 8:30-4:30; Sat. 9:30-1:00)

Chelsea: 212-265-4500

645 10th Avenue at 46th Street (Mon., Tues. & Thurs. 8:30-7, Wed. & Fri. 8:30-4:30)

www.ryancenter.org

Non-profit community health center, including primary health care and mental health care.

BETANCES

212-227-8401

280 Henry Street

www.betances.org

Multi-language, Lower East Side community health center; provides primary and specialty medical care and complementary and holistic therapies.

CALLEN-LORDE COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER

212-271-7200

356 West 18th Street

www.callen-lorde.org

Serving primarily but not exclusively the LGBT community; provides primary medical care, mental health care, and social services regardless of ability to pay.

COMMUNITY HEALTHCARE NETWORK

www.chnnyc.org

Multiple locations: <http://chnnyc.org/locations/>

Community based health clinics serving low-income; provides primary medical care, mental health care and social services; locations in all five boroughs.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD

Offers health care services for women. From their website

(<http://www.ppnyc.org/services/locations.html>): "If you do not have health insurance, you can still come to PPNYC. PPNYC has Entitlement Counselors at each of our three health centers. This counselor can help you find out if you can get Medicaid, Child Health Plus, or the new Family Planning Benefit Program. If you do not qualify for these health insurance programs, our centers may still be able to offer you a lower fee, depending on your income and the services that you need. In order to see a counselor, please call (212) 965-7000 to make an appointment."