

Department of Real Estate Advisory Board Speaker Series

“DEAL MAKING – A CASE STUDY”

Speaker: Dennis Friedrich

Brookfield Office Properties

Time/Date: 2:30 – 3:45 pm, November 8, 2011

Venue: Oak Room (137 E 22nd Street, Room 203)

Dennis Friedrich was appointed President and Global Chief Investment Officer in 2011. Previously, he was the Chief Executive Officer of U.S. Commercial Operations since 2009. Prior to that, he was President of Brookfield Office Properties' U.S. Commercial Operations, following two years as Chief Operating Officer of U.S. Commercial Operations. Dennis has been involved with several major acquisitions including the Trizec deal in 2006. Dennis also previously held the role of head of Strategic Initiatives for the U.S. property portfolio. Prior to joining Brookfield Office Properties, Dennis was co-head of Jones Lang LaSalle's tenant advisory practice in New York. He holds a business degree in finance from Baruch College and is a member of the Real Estate Board of New York.