Current students who wish to be considered for the Work-Study Project must have completed at least 12 credits in their program. The applicants must have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5.
Incoming students must have an overall undergraduate grade point average of at least a 3.5 and a GMAT total score of at least 550 or 152 in each section of the GRE.