

Department of Real Estate Advisory Board Speaker Series

“Sustainability - The Next Generation”

Speakers: Joseph Macnow
Dan Egan
Vornado Realty Trust

When: February 23, 2016
Time: 5:50-7:05 pm
Where: Newman Hall
(137 E. 22nd Street, Room 203)

Mr. Macnow has been with Vornado for 35 years. He became Chief Administrative Officer in June 2013; he was previously the Company's Chief Financial Officer. Prior to joining Vornado, Mr. Macnow was employed as Vice President, Chief Financial Officer of City Stores Company. Prior to joining City Stores Company, Mr. Macnow was an Audit Manager with the international public accounting firm of Ernst & Young. He is a Certified Public Accountant licensed in the State of New York and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Financial Executives Institute.

Mr. Macnow earned his BBA from the City College of New York, Baruch School of Public and Business Administration, majoring in Accounting. He continued his education at Baruch and at the University of Southern California, completing all course work required for receiving the Degree of Master of Business Administration.

Mr. Macnow participates in Baruch College's Executives on Campus program, is a member of the Department of Real Estate's Advisory Board and The Steven L. Newman Real Estate Institute's Advisory Board at Baruch and Baruch's 17 Lex Society. In 2012, Mr. Macnow was the recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Baruch College. He is the recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in 2005. Also in 2005, the Bergen Museum of Art & Science named Mr. Macnow the Museum's Person of the Year.

Daniel Egan is Vice President of Sustainability and Utilities for Vornado Realty Trust. Dan's sustainability program combines environmental, fiscal and social responsibility for Vornado's entire real estate portfolio.

Special projects under Dan's jurisdiction include all LEED and Energy Star affiliated programs, and he also acts as Vornado's advocate in New York for all NYSEERDA and Con Edison energy incentive programs. Of particular importance is Dan's managing of Vornado's Energy Efficiency Capital Improvement fund, which executes projects with measurable energy reduction targets. Part of Dan's role focuses on Vornado's response to emerging trends in Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) for the real estate industry. These ESG trends include topics in occupant health and indoor environmental quality, securing corporate debt in the form of green bonds, and the growing interest from the investor base in the reporting on and reduction of Vornado's carbon footprint.

Dan received his bachelor's degree in Urban Studies from New York University and his MBA with a dual concentration in Real Estate and Finance from Baruch College's Zicklin School of Business.