

Ethical Awareness Assessment Sheet

Students will be sensitive to ethical issues in business, understand the importance of behavior and their responsibilities as business people to uphold ethical principles in their dealings.

Goal: Ethical Awareness	3. Exceeded expectations	2. Met Expectations	1. Failed to Meet Expectations	Score*
Learning Objective 1: Applying the process of ethical reasoning of work organizations	Recognized most pertinent elements in the process of ethical reasoning	Recognized some pertinent elements in the process of ethical reasoning	Recognized few pertinent elements in the process of ethical reasoning
Learning Objective 2: Identify the significance of ethics in work organizations for society	Recognized most pertinent impacts of corporate ethics decisions on stakeholders	Recognized some pertinent impacts of corporate ethics decisions on stakeholders	Recognized few pertinent impacts of corporate ethics decisions on stakeholders
Learning Objective 3: Evaluate the impact of (un)ethical decisions on the work organization	Recognized most pertinent impacts of corporate ethics decisions on the work organization	Recognized some pertinent impacts of corporate ethics decisions on the work organization	Recognized few pertinent impacts of corporate ethics decisions on the work organization
Total
Comments	*Mark N/A if not applicable

Suggested measurement mechanism: Ethics Simulation Game

Revised 2/7/11