

The William Newman Department of Real Estate
at Baruch College in conjunction with

Real Estate Lenders Association

presents

Speed Networking Event

February 22, 2018

8:30am - 10:20am

This event is a unique opportunity for Real Estate students to meet one-on-one with industry professionals. Over the course of the event, students sit down individually with different real estate professionals to discuss their career goals. This is a valuable way for students to:

- Share their resumes with new contacts in the real estate industry
- Gain advice on excelling in their careers
- Learn how others got started in real estate
