AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS

THE UNIVERSITY

The Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences (AUAS) offers a range of programs that emphasize practical research to address real-life world problems in a range of professional fields. The AUAS has a total of 43,000 students and offers a variety of undergraduate and graduate programs of study. Baruch students study in the School of Economics and Management in the AUAS and take courses in English.

THE CITY

Amsterdam, the capital city of the Netherlands, combines a 17th century historical atmosphere—small scale buildings, intimate streets, canals, and public squares—with the mentality of a modern metropolis. Amsterdam has the highest museum density in the world and is also a hotbed of education and research in all conceivable areas.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

Slightly different from the Baruch Academic Calendar, AUAS has the following semester breakdown:

Spring semester: February – July
Fall semester: August – January

Frequently Asked Questions

NOMINATION CRITERIA?
3.0 GPA or higher; junior standing; one semester at Baruch College; open to all majors, but an excellent option for business majors. Complete Baruch Application to Study Abroad and the exchange interview.

VISA PROCESS?
Students nominated for this exchange must submit documentation and fees, as instructed. The visa application for non-EU students is processed by the Immigration Department of AUAS, provided that all the required documents are received by the incoming team of the International Center on time.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS?
AUAS offers a crash 'survival' course in Dutch, a beginner's program, or even more advanced multiweek courses. Dutch is not a foreign language taught throughout CUNY, and exchange students are not required to take a Dutch language course, but it may be taken as a liberal arts elective.

COURSE OFFERINGS?
Students with international ambitions and a passion for business should consider this exchange in Amsterdam at the faculty of Business and Economics. AUAS offers a wide range of courses taught in English and they also offer unique minors, which are a group of topically connected courses students may also apply to take.

CAMPUS LIFE?
For help in getting settled in Amsterdam, exchange students should join the International Student Network (ISN), an organization run by students of both AUAS and the University of Amsterdam. It facilitates the social and cultural integration of international students into Dutch society, with a particular focus on Amsterdam.

HOUSING?
There are various off-campus housing options spread across the city of Amsterdam and Diemen. These buildings are owned and managed by partners of AUAS, and are not residences that belong to the university directly. Different room types, price ranges, and locations are available.
