COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

THE UNIVERSITY

Copenhagen Business School is Denmark’s largest educational institution of business and economics. CBS is committed to providing business-related study programs and continuing education programs for the public and private sectors. Its faculty includes many internationally renowned researchers. Although the name of the school implies a strictly business curriculum, CBS also offers many social sciences and area studies courses.

Frequently Asked Questions

NOMINATION CRITERIA?
3.0 GPA or higher; junior standing; one semester at Baruch College; business-oriented majors. Complete Baruch Application to Study Abroad and the exchange interview. Nomination for this exchange may be competitive, due to limited spots.

VISA PROCESS?
Upon acceptance, CBS provides students with detailed instructions about applying for a Danish student residence permit. Processing times of the Danish visa can vary, so students should commence the process without delay, once instructed.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS?
The language of instruction at CBS is English. Danish may be taken as an elective language course, for which students will receive free or liberal arts elective credit. Exchange students are not required to take the language course, but may choose to do so.

CLASSES AT CBS?
Many courses taught at CBS have been pre-approved for Baruch equivalent courses, but students should refer to the CBS website for other courses. In addition to its business courses, CBS also offers a range of courses in Communications, Political Science, and other social sciences.

CAMPUS LIFE?
Exchange students will be assigned a local CBS student “buddy,” who will help them adapt to their new surroundings. During orientation, students will have the opportunity to sign up for one of the many student organizations that welcome new exchange students to join.

HOUSING?
Exchange students may apply to stay in CBS residence halls, but placement is not guaranteed. Chances of placement can vary from fall (more competitive) to spring. Those students not offered a space on-campus will be given guidance in finding off-campus housing.
