PARIS, FRANCE

THE UNIVERSITY
Dauphine University is one of France's leading universities for business, and is known for its entrepreneurial, project-based approach and commitment to the highest international academic standards. The school offers students a broad choice of English-language courses in economics, political science, law, sociology, management, math and computer science, in addition to its extensive list of courses given in French.

THE CITY
Paris is the capital city of France, but it is also one of the world capitals of fashion, culture, and the arts. Paris attracts millions of visitors each year to its many cultural landmarks such as the Eiffel Tower and Notre Dame, and museums such as the Louvre, the Musee d’Orsay, and the Centre Pompidou. Paris is also the seat of government and the financial center of France.

Frequently Asked Questions

NOMINATION CRITERIA?
3.0 GPA or higher; junior standing; one semester at Baruch College; business-oriented majors. Complete Baruch Application to Study Abroad and the exchange interview.

VISA PROCESS?
Upon nomination, and once the official acceptance letter has been received, students should apply immediately through Campus France. An appointment should be scheduled with the Visa Application Center in NYC, but approval from Campus France must be received before the appointment can occur.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS?
Baruch exchange students are required to take a French language course (minimum 3 credits), or a course taught in French. Baruch students must also enroll in a 1-week intensive French course prior to the start of the semester, for which there is an additional fee of about 200 euros.

COURSE OFFERINGS?
There are courses that have pre-approved Baruch equivalents in the study abroad database, but the information is often put online around the time students get nominated. While this is a renowned business school, in addition to business courses, students may also find courses in Communications, Political Science, and other social sciences.

CAMPUS LIFE?
Dauphine International Erasmus Exchange (DIEE) is a club made up of local Dauphine students who organize nights out and excursions for international students. Depending on the semester, there may be a “club fair” that you can attend to find out more about clubs on campus.

HOUSING?
Exchange students may pay a fee to Dauphine which will then allow them to apply to stay in residence halls, but there is no guarantee that students will receive placement. If students pay the fee and don’t get placed in one of several CROUS residences, Dauphine’s housing services will give them access to other alternatives.
