THE UNIVERSITY

The Free University of Bozen-Bolzano is located in one of the most fascinating European regions, at the crossroads between the German-speaking and Italian economies and cultures. Its trilingualism in teaching and research, its international focus, and its excellent facilities are some of the reasons why UNIBZ regularly reaches top positions in national and international rankings.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

Bolzano has the following semester breakdown:

- Fall semester: September - February
- Spring semester: March - July

(Students may need to make accommodations for differences in academic calendar)

THE CITY

Bozen–Bolzano (in German and Italian) is the capital city of the province of South Tyrol, in the Trentino Alto Adige region in northern Italy. Its medieval city center, Gothic and Romanesque churches, and bilingual nature place it at the crossroads of Italian and Austrian cultures. Its quality of life is reflected in its openness, youthful energy, and scenery. This small city is a long-time conduit between the Austrian and Italian cultures.

Frequently Asked Questions

NOMINATION CRITERIA?

3.0 GPA or higher; junior standing. Complete Baruch Application to Study Abroad and the exchange interview.

VISA PROCESS?

Non-EU citizens should obtain a student visa prior to departure. Immediately upon arrival, students must apply for a resident permit. Students will meet with the International Relations Office at UNIBZ and will be provided with an information package that includes the application form and the list of attachments to add to the application.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS?

Exchange students are required to take either Italian or German as a foreign language course. Students are able to choose from a fairly broad selection of courses offered in English.

COURSE OFFERINGS?

UNIBZ offers a range of courses in several different disciplines in the fields of business, the social sciences, art and design. The number of available courses taught in English appears to be fairly extensive.

CAMPUS LIFE?

UNIBZ offers exchange students many opportunities to join sports tournaments, experience social and cultural activities through organized events, and even attend weekly "UniParties" where students can engage with both international and local students.

HOUSING?

UNIBZ offers accommodation in residence halls. Exchange students can apply through the online registration form - the link is sent to all applicants by the International Relations Office. Bozen-Bolzano is a small town and it can be challenging to find rooms on the private market.
